

COUNTDOWN PROJECT MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP

EFFECTIVE PROJECT MANAGEMENT IS CRITICAL IN ANY ORGANISATION

Effective project management is critical for businesses with lack of skills in this area the cause of cost overruns, delayed projects and even business failure.

Our Countdown Project Management workshop concentrates on providing a powerful, high involvement project simulation in which teams assume the roles of a fictional company with a critical need to improve their project management processes.

It will quickly involve participants in a project working with Gantt charts, estimating delays and costs, evaluating critical paths, assessing project risks and making decision trade-offs.

TXM Training Countdown teaches you how to overcome the stumbling blocks of project management, implement effective team behaviours and explaining the triple constraints of project management – time, cost and requirements.
