

BUILD A CULTURE OF CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

Our Lean Daily Leadership Process (LDLP) is a highly customisable operations management system concentrated on building Lean foundations in your organisation.

The LDLP centres around engaging the most senior leaders in your organisation to lead Lean transformation. Providing the fundamentals to create a culture of operational excellence.

TXM Training's Lean Daily Leadership Process provides an adaptable, intuitive, everyday system that can be applied across industries. It delivers the critical skills and behaviours required of a Lean Leader. It will also help highlight the key barriers to change within your organisation.

The three key elements that provide the foundation of the Lean Daily Leadership Process are:
