

LEARN HOW TO MAP VALUE STREAMS

Value Stream Mapping is a reliable tool for understanding your organisation and eliminating wastes.

Our 2-day in-depth workshop teaches techniques to successfully implement Value Stream Mapping in your organisation.

Allowing micro-behaviours to be defined immediately and engages you to participate and learn Value Stream Mapping at an operational level.

TXM Training Practitioners will teach you how to overcome the stumbling blocks of Value Stream Mapping. Checking your understanding and role-play conversations to demonstrate what really happens in the work place.

Our practitioners identify boundary conditions and role play the ideal situation as the current state is unravelling.
